

UNIQUE HOMES

3 LUXURY CONDOS WITH VIEWS OF MULTIPLE NYC ICONS

New York City is widely known as a top sight-seeing destination, especially when all lit up during the holidays. Here are three new developments that offer views of three or more famous NYC icons from an apartment window.

1. GRAMERCY SQUARE

This new, four-building luxury condo project is in Gramercy Park, where homebuyers can choose units with soaring 14-foot ceilings and unmatched views that include a combination of the Empire State building, the Chrysler Building and Madison Square Park or the MetLife Building.

Photo credit: Familiar Control

2. CITIZEN360

Located in the emerging Yorkville neighborhood, Anbau's SHoP Architects-designed, 34-story luxury condominium will bring 84 exceptionally crafted one-to-four bedroom residences with expansive floor-to-ceiling windows, offering stunning views of the iconic Upper East Side streetscape, including Carl Schurz Park and the East River Promenade, with higher floors enjoying views of Central Park and Billionaire's Row. Home are priced from approximately $1.3 million to over $12 million.

Photo credit: Redundant Pixel

3. FIFTY THIRD & EIGHTH

HFZ Capital Group's 25-story Hell's Kitchen luxury condominium offers residents of its 262 one-to-three bedroom homes unparalleled views of notable Manhattan recreational landmarks including Central Park and Riverside Park, as well as culture hotspots such as the MoMA and the Theatre District. Pricing starts at approximately $1.185 million.

Photo credit: Fifty Third & Eighth

QUINN